SPECIAL POPULATION WEBINAR:

October 27, 2022

Trauma Informed Management: Practical Skills for Nursing Facilities

This webinar will continue to follow this quarter's education theme, addressing workforce challenges. This session will focus on trauma informed management for nursing facilities. The connections between trauma informed and resident centered care will be covered. Participants will review what traumatic stress can look like for long-term care residents. There will be a discussion about the impact of vicarious trauma on staff working in these settings. Practical skills for managing traumatic stress will be reviewed.

Please invite the following Special Population Team Members:

- Social Workers
- Social Services Managers
- Department Managers
- Service Coordinators
- Service Coordinator Managers
