

Matrix Chart for Innovative Hospital Models:
Micro-hospital, Outpatient Emergency Department, Tele-emergency Department

Updated January 2023

	Micro-Hospital	Outpatient Emergency Department (OED)	Tele-Emergency Department (tele-ED)
Stand-alone facility	Possibly. A micro-hospital could be a stand-alone licensed hospital or could be a campus of a licensed hospital. Please contact your DAAC Field Office if you have questions about whether a facility is eligible for licensure or a campus designation.	No. An OED must be an outpatient department of a licensed hospital.	No. A tele-ED is an emergency department model for use in an eligible rural hospital.
Eligible locations	No limits on eligible location.	Cannot be located within 35 driving miles of an existing emergency department not under common legal ownership, unless the OED is a CAH or a small rural hospital transitioning to an OED.	Rural areas only. A rural area is any area not included in an “urbanized area” as designated by the U.S. Census Bureau based on the 2010 decennial census.
Inpatient beds on-site	Yes. A minimum of 10 inpatient beds on-site, regardless of whether a licensed hospital itself or a campus of a licensed hospital.	No.	Yes. The tele-ED guidance extends only to operation of the emergency department. Other hospital services, including inpatient services, are not addressed. Hospitals would continue to operate under existing regulatory requirements for inpatient services.
ED treatment rooms	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.

Matrix Chart for Innovative Hospital Models:
Micro-hospital, Outpatient Emergency Department, Tele-emergency Department

Updated January 2023

	Micro-Hospital	Outpatient Emergency Department (OED)	Tele-Emergency Department (tele-ED)
	A minimum of 10 ED treatment rooms.	A minimum of 10 ED treatment rooms	No minimum prescribed in guidance, but the scope of the ED services must be consistent with the scope of other services provided by the hospital.
Physician on-site 24/7	Yes.	Yes.	No. The tele-ED will be staffed by Advanced Practice Practitioners (APP) credentialed and privileged in emergency medicine and a physician will be immediately available 24/7 through telemedicine.
Physician on-call 24/7	Yes.	Yes.	Yes.
EMS can transport to the ED	Yes.	Yes.	Yes, upon approval from a medical command physician. Hospitals operating with a tele-ED will not meet the requirements of a Medical Command Facility.
Exception request required	Generally, no. Implementation of the model by itself in accordance with the guidance does not require an exception request, but there may be other instances in which a	Generally, no. Implementation of the model by itself in accordance with the guidance does not require an exception request, but there may be other instances in which a	Yes. Hospitals will complete an exception request form to operate a tele-ED. Please consult the Department's website or DAAC's Central Office for

Matrix Chart for Innovative Hospital Models:
Micro-hospital, Outpatient Emergency Department, Tele-emergency Department

Updated January 2023

	Micro-Hospital	Outpatient Emergency Department (OED)	Tele-Emergency Department (tele-ED)
	hospital may be seeking an exception from a regulatory requirement. Please contact the DAAC Central Office if you have questions about whether an exception request is needed.	hospital may be seeking an exception from a regulatory requirement. Please contact the DAAC Central Office if you have questions about whether an exception request is needed.	additional information on the exceptions process.